

Wabanaki Artists Group Exhibition Application

AX is thrilled to announce an open call for applications from Indigenous artists from the Wabanaki Confederacy. AX is a non-profit charitable arts organization committed to providing accessible arts programming to the community of Sussex, New Brunswick. We invite talented artists from the Wabanaki nations to showcase their work in a group exhibition scheduled for January/February of 2025. Artists will be paid current CARFAC Fee standards.

At AX, we recognize the profound importance of Indigenous voices and perspectives in the arts. As part of our ongoing commitment to diversity, inclusivity, and cultural representation, we are dedicated to amplifying Indigenous art and culture within our community. By providing a platform for Indigenous artists to exhibit their work, we aim to foster greater understanding, appreciation, and celebration of Indigenous creativity and heritage.

Deadline to apply is Friday, September 20, 2024 at Midnight AST.

Application Form

First and Last Name:

---

Address:

---

Please specify which Wabanaki Community you are part of:

---

Preferred pronouns (e.g. she/her, they/them, etc)

---

Email address: _____

Phone number: _____

Website and/or Social Media Handle (optional):instagram

---

Please email the following via email to admin@axartscentre.ca once you've completed the application:

- Artist CV
- Artist Bio
- Artist Statement
- Completed Application Form
- Images of up to 5 artworks (JPG or PNG file)
- List of works (Must include title, dimensions, medium, year, description, price)

Thank you for your application!